2. Incorporation of Trading Policies. The Trading Policies are incorporated by reference into and form part of this Member Agreement. The Trading Policies, as amended from time to time, shall prevail in the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the application or interpretation of any provision of this Member Agreement and the application or interpretation of the Trading Policies.

3. Services

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Member Agreement, the Exchange shall provide Member with: (i) access to the Exchange Systems to enter, view, and cancel orders and other messages and instructions, receive execution reports and status updates, and execute trades against orders on the selected Trading Books as indicated in Schedule A, as amended; and (ii) the Member’s Transaction Data (as defined in section 11(b) below) (collectively, the “Services”).

(b) The Exchange reserves the right to make additions to, deletions from, and otherwise modify the Services and the Exchange Systems; provided that the Exchange shall notify Member before such addition, deletion, or other modification becomes effective (which notice may be provided by way of a notice to members generally posted to the Exchange’s website or sent electronically to the Authorized Representative). Any use of the Services or access or use of the Exchange Systems by Member after the applicable notice period shall be deemed acceptance by Member of such addition, deletion, or other modification.

(c) If Member sends an order or any message or instruction to a Trading Book that it has not selected for access, the Exchange will notify Member. If Member continues to provide orders, messages, or instructions to one or more Trading Books it has chosen not to access, the Exchange will first verify whether it would prefer to change its election and then, if not, may sanction Member, including suspension of access to all Trading Books.

(d) Nothing in this Member Agreement constitutes an undertaking by the Exchange to continue any aspect of the Services or the Exchange Systems in their current forms.

4. Fees

Member shall make timely payment of all fees, including any applicable taxes, relating to the use of the Services and access to and use of the Exchange Systems (as posted from time to time on the Exchange’s website, as amended) as well as any and all other amounts payable in connection with this Member Agreement. the Exchange may, at its sole option and expense: (i) procure for Member the right to continue using the Services and the Exchange Systems without infringement or misappropriation; (ii) replace or modify that portion of the Services or the Exchange Systems, as the case may be, to be non-infringing and require the return of the potentially infringing or misappropriating items, if applicable, without liability to Member or any other Person; or (iii) terminate this Member Agreement immediately without liability to Member (other than indemnification by the Exchange in accordance with this section) or any other Person.

- (e) Exclusivity. This section 18 sets forth the entire liability of the Exchange and the exclusive remedy of Member in respect of any infringement or misappropriation of any intellectual property right of a third party by the Exchange.

19. Term and Termination

- (a) Term. This Member Agreement will continue until terminated pursuant to the terms hereof.
- (b) Termination with Notice. The Exchange or Member may terminate this Member Agreement by giving not less than 30 days' advance notice to the other party. The Exchange may postpone the effective date of such termination if Member: (i) is the subject of disciplinary proceedings or is under investigation for failure to comply with Exchange Requirements; or (ii) has any trades outstanding.
- (c) Termination by the Exchange without Notice. The Exchange may terminate this Member Agreement by giving not less than five days' advance notice to Member if the Exchange has concluded, after reasonable investigation, that Member is: (i) not in compliance with Exchange Requirements; or (ii) engaged in business conduct that is unbecoming, inconsistent with just and equitable principles of trade, or detrimental to the public interest or the interests of the Exchange.
- (d) Effect of Termination. Subject to section 19(e), upon termination of this Member Agreement for any reason, all rights granted to Member hereunder will cease. If the Exchange or Member terminates this Member Agreement, immediately following the effective date of termination, Member shall: (i) permit the Exchange to immediately remove Member's access to the Services and the Exchange Systems; and (ii) return or destroy all materials provided by the Exchange pursuant to this Member Agreement relating to the Services and the Exchange Systems, except where the retention of such materials is required by law or pursuant to the Exchange Requirements.
- (e) Survival. Sections 4, 9, 11, 12, 13, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 26, 28, 29, 30, 31, 34, and 35 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Member Agreement. In no event will expiration or termination of this Member Agreement relieve Member of: (i) any obligations, including the obligation to pay all fees and other amounts, incurred up to the expiration or termination or through use of the Services or access or connection to the Exchange Systems; or (ii) any obligations to complete or implement any transaction entered into before such termination or arising from or accruing from authorized activities of Member up to the effective time of expiration or termination.

20. Dispute Resolution

- (a) Appeal to the Exchange Board. In the event of any dispute between Member and the Exchange which is not resolved to the satisfaction of Member, Member may appeal to the Exchange's Board in accordance with Part XIV of the Trading Policies.
- (b) Referral to Regulatory Authority or Arbitration. If Member refuses to accept or comply with any Decision of the Exchange's Board, Member may give notice (a "Dispute Referral Notice") to the Exchange of Member's intention to refer the dispute to the securities regulatory authority having competent jurisdiction or to final binding arbitration in accordance with this section 20. Member shall deliver the Dispute Referral Notice to the Exchange within 10 days after delivery of the Decision of the Exchange's Board. If Member fails to deliver the Dispute Referral Notice to the Exchange within such time period, Member will be deemed to have accepted, and shall comply with, and the Exchange shall be entitled to enforce, the Decision of the Exchange's Board.
- (c) Arbitration - General. The arbitration shall be conducted in Toronto, Ontario (with appropriate teleconferencing facilities being made available to Member if attendance in person is unduly onerous), in English, and in accordance with the Arbitrations Act, 1991 (Ontario). All disputes referred to arbitration shall be governed by the laws of the Province of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein. The arbitration shall be conducted before a single arbitrator, who shall be qualified and knowledgeable in the subject matter of the dispute, impartial, and independent of Member and the Exchange. Absent an award to the contrary, the fees and expenses of the arbitration shall be shared and paid by the Exchange and Member equally. In the event of any dispute relating to any of Member's orders, trades, messages, or instructions carried out through use of the Services or access or use of the Exchange Systems, the electronic records of the Exchange will be, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, proof of such orders, trades, messages, or instructions.
- (d) Appointment of Arbitrator. If Member refers the dispute to arbitration, the Dispute Referral Notice shall include the name of three qualified individuals whom Member is prepared to appoint as arbitrator. Within 10 days of receipt of a Dispute Referral Notice referring a dispute to arbitration, the Exchange will, by notice to Member: (i) agree to the appointment of one of the three individuals named by Member in the Dispute Referral Notice; or (ii) apply to the Ontario Superior Court of Justice for the appointment of a sole arbitrator. If the Exchange fails to otherwise notify Member within such 10-day period, Member may apply to the Ontario Superior Court of Justice for the appointment of a sole arbitrator.
- (e) Arbitration Procedures. Within 20 business days following the appointment of the arbitrator, Member shall deliver to the Exchange and the arbitrator a statement (a "Complaint") concisely setting forth the facts and law upon which it relies and the relief or remedy sought. Within 20 business days following receipt of the Complaint, the Exchange shall deliver to Member and the arbitrator a response (an "Answer") to the Complaint concisely setting forth its position and the facts and law upon which it relies supporting the Decision. If the Exchange fails to deliver an Answer within such 20-business day period, the Exchange shall be deemed to have admitted the allegations of fact alleged in the Complaint and have accepted Member's entitlement to the relief and remedy set out in the Complaint. Within 10 business days after receipt of the Answer, Member may deliver to the Exchange and the arbitrator a reply to the Answer concisely setting forth its response, if any, to the Answer. Within 10 business days after the later of: (i) delivery of the Answer by the Exchange; and (ii) delivery of any reply to the Answer by Member, in either case, Member or the Exchange may, upon notice to the other party and the arbitrator, request the arbitrator to give directions and make any order which is, in the discretion of the arbitrator, reasonable regarding any procedural matters which properly should be resolved before the arbitrator proceeds further, including, without limitation, the amendment of any pleadings, the production of documents and the need for examinations for discovery, either by way of oral examination or written interrogatories, and a determination as to the manner in which evidence shall be presented to the arbitrator. In making any order or giving any direction in respect of any procedural matter, the arbitrator may impose such terms as are reasonable in order to ensure the completion of the arbitration in a timely manner. If neither the Exchange nor Member requests directions as provided above, within an additional 10 business days, the arbitrator shall give directions regarding the further procedural steps in the arbitration, including any production of documents, any examinations for discovery, and the time and place of the first hearing. Member and the Exchange shall be present at each hearing and shall produce, in advance of the first hearing, any and all records, books, documents, and papers that they intend to show to witnesses or otherwise rely upon in the arbitration. Each of Member and the Exchange shall have an opportunity to make oral submissions to the arbitrator.

- (f) Award. The arbitrator shall have the authority to award any remedy or relief that a court or judge of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice or a securities regulatory authority having competent jurisdiction could order or grant. Unless the time for making an award is extended by agreement of Member and the Exchange or by court order, the arbitrator shall make an award within 20 business days after completion of any hearing or other final procedural step in which evidence or argument is provided to the arbitrator. The award shall be in writing and shall state the reasons on which it is based. The award may include an award of costs, including reasonable legal fees and disbursements and fees and expenses of the arbitrator. Executed copies of all awards shall be delivered by the arbitrator to Member and the Exchange as soon as is reasonably possible. The award shall be final and binding on the parties. The arbitration shall be kept confidential, and the existence of the proceeding and any element of it (including pleadings or awards) shall be kept confidential, except as disclosure may be required by applicable law or self-regulatory organizations or for enforcement purposes.
- (g) Extension of Time Periods. The time limits referred to in this section 20 may be extended by agreement of Member and the Exchange.

- (d) A notice or communication required or permitted to be given under this Member Agreement shall be effective at the time the delivery is made if the notice or communication is delivered personally, by courier service or by electronic delivery; or four days after the day the notice or communication is deposited in the mail if the notice or communication is sent by registered or certified mail. Despite the foregoing, if any such effective day is not a business day, the notice or communication is not effective until the next business day.
- (e) The Exchange or Member may, from time to time, change its address or email address by notice to the other party given in accordance with the provisions of this section.

22. Related Registrants. Member acknowledges that individuals who are members of the Exchange's Board may be employees, officers, directors, or partners of registrants under applicable Ontario and other securities laws that are members of the Exchange or affiliates thereof. The Exchange has developed policies and procedures to address real and perceived conflicts of interest that may arise as a result of such relationships.

23. Information Provided

- (a) Member will promptly furnish to the Exchange such additional information and documentation as may be requested from time to time by the Exchange; and
- (b) Member warrants and represents that all information contained herein and attached as Schedule A, and all other information provided to or to be provided to, and statements made to, the Exchange is, or will be at the time made, current, true, and complete, and will be updated in a timely manner, as applicable.

24. Assignment. Member's license to use the Services and to access and use the Exchange Systems during the term of this Member Agreement is personal, non-exclusive, and non-transferable. Member shall not assign, delegate, or otherwise transfer this Member Agreement or any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the Exchange's prior approval. The Exchange may, upon notice to Member (which notice may be provided by way of a notice posted to the Exchange's website or sent to members by electronic delivery), assign or transfer this Member Agreement or any of its rights or obligations hereunder to another Person that is controlled by the Exchange, controls the Exchange, or is under common control with the Exchange.

25. Force Majeure. Neither party will be liable for delay or failure to perform its obligations under this Member Agreement (other than failure to pay fees and other amounts when due) caused by an event that is beyond the party's control; provided, however, that such party will not have contributed in any way to such event and the other party shall be excused from performing its obligations under this Member Agreement (other than the payment of fees and other amounts when due) to the extent such party's obligations relate to the obligations of the first party that cannot be performed.

- 26. Severability. Each provision of this Member Agreement is intended to be severable. If any provision of this Member Agreement is or becomes illegal, invalid, or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, the illegality, invalidity, or unenforceability of that provision will not affect: (i) the legality, validity, or enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Member Agreement; or (ii) the legality, validity, or enforceability of that provision in any other jurisdiction.
- 27. Amendments. The Exchange may, subject to receipt of all required approvals including those of the applicable securities regulatory authorities, amend any term of this Member Agreement on 45 days' notice to Member (by way of a notice to members posted on the Exchange's website or sent by electronic delivery to all members). Member hereby agrees that any use of the Services or access or use of the Exchange Systems by Member after the expiration of the notice period shall be deemed acceptance by Member of the amendment. Member may not alter any terms or conditions of this Member Agreement, and no modification to this Member Agreement proposed by Member will be effective or binding on the Exchange, unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Exchange. The Exchange confirms that the terms offered to Member under this Member Agreement are no less favourable than any terms currently agreed to or that will be agreed to by the Exchange with any other member.
- 28. Waivers. A waiver of any provision of this Member Agreement will not be effective unless in writing and signed by the other party, and then such waiver shall be limited to the circumstances set forth in such written waiver. No failure or delay of a party in exercising any right, power, or remedy shall operate as a waiver nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right, power, or remedy preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy.
- 29. Persons Bound. This Member Agreement is binding upon the parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Except as provided under sections 17 and 18, nothing in this Member Agreement is intended to confer upon any Person other than the parties hereto any rights or remedies hereunder.
- 30. Governing Law. This Member Agreement and all other documents contemplated by or delivered in connection with this Member Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Provinces of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein (without regard to conflicts of law principles that would impose the laws of another jurisdiction).
